About Us

The National Center on Sexual Exploitation (NCOSE) is the leading national organization exposing the links between all forms of sexual exploitation such as child sexual abuse, prostitution, sex trafficking and the public health crisis of pornography. To accomplish its vision of abolition from sexual exploitation, NCOSE operates on the cutting edge of policy activism to combat corporate and government policies that foster exploitation, advance public education and empowerment, and spur united action by helping to lead the movement through the international Coalition to End Sexual Exploitation.

The Coalition to End Sexual Exploitation (CESE) is directed by NCOSE and started in 2009. With 300+ members, CESE is focused on uniting the efforts of like-minded organizations and leaders across the world in a loose coalition to solve and end the complex social issue of sexual exploitation. Read CESE's Guiding Values here.

Why should you partner with us?

Like you, we believe in a world free from sexual exploitation, objectification, and violence. We believe every human being deserves the opportunity to live life to its fullest potential: to pursue dreams; express creativity and hone talents; seek beauty, truth, and faith; experience hope, joy, and love with family and friends—to thrive.

But there are forces at work in our society that are robbing children of their innocence, sapping humanity's capacity for love and compassion, and extinguishing our culture's will to protect. These are the forces of sexual exploitation.

While the problem remains immense, opportunities to take new ground abound. Now, more than ever, the burgeoning movement to end sexual exploitation needs to be energized, equipped, encouraged and inspired.

Your experience and leadership are vital to harnessing that energy, equipping emerging leaders, and inspiring the next generation to dream of a world free from sexual exploitation.
