The Coalition to End Sexual Exploitation Presents

OUT OF THE SHADOWS

Addressing the Sexual Exploitation of Boys & Men

WHEN
September 8, 2017
9:00 AM – 2:00 PM

WHERE
The Miracle Theater
535 8th St. SE
Washington, DC
20003

COST
Complimentary
Lunch provided
RSVP required

RSVP at ExploitationOfBoysAndMen.com

Hosted by

Washington College Institute for Religion, Politics and Culture
SPEAKERS

Joseph Prud’Homme, Ph.D
Director, Institute for Religion, Politics and Culture and Associate Professor of Political Science and faculty in Religious Studies, Washington College

“Popular Culture and the Sexual Commodification of the Male Body: Problems and Solutions”

Tom Jones
Founder, The H.O.P.E. Project

“The Silent Brotherhood: Engaging the Issues of Sexually Exploited Boys and Men in America”

Haley Halverson
Director of Advocacy and Outreach, National Center on Sexual Exploitation

Event Moderator

“Turning on the Light: Why Male Exploitation Needs To Be Addressed”

Kevin Malone
President, U.S. Institute Against Human Trafficking

Geoffrey Rogers
CEO, U.S. Institute Against Human Trafficking

“Sex Trafficking of Boys, Gay, and Transgender Youth: The Case for Social Services”

Carol Smolenski
Executive Director and Co-Founder, ECPAT-USA

“And Boys Too: The Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Boys in the U.S.”

Alexander Rhodes
Founder, NoFap®

“How Internet Pornography Is Impacting a Generation of Young Men”

RSVP at ExploitationOfBoysAndMen.com